

CIA 1-64 Klee, William B.

William B. Klee Dies; Former CIA Official

William B. Klee, 72, a retired administrative services officer of the Central Intelligence Agency, died Thursday at Sibley Hospital following a heart attack.

Born in Staten Island, N.Y., Klee attended Cooper Union and Pace College in New York City and American University here.

After completing college in 1923, he worked for 10 years as a management advisor with an engineering consultant firm in New York. He then became an administrator at the Farm Credit Administration here, a position he held until World War II.

War Years Service

During the war, Klee was an administrative officer at the War Manpower Commission. He then held a similar position at the State Department for 10 years. From 1955 until he retired in 1960, he worked at CIA.

Klee was a member of the Church of the Little Flower in Glen Mar Park, Md., the Holy Name Society and the Knights of Columbus.

Survivors Listed

He leaves his wife, Edith, of the home, 5216 Marlyn Drive, Glen Mar Park; a daughter, Mrs. Henry A. Snell, 4600 Landgreen St., Rockville, and a son, William W., of Thousand Oaks, Calif.

WILLIAM B. KLEE

Friends may call at Gawlers funeral home, Wisconsin Avenue and Harrison Street NW.

Requiem mass will be said at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Church of the Little Flower, 5601 Massachusetts Ave., Bethesda. Burial will be in Gate of Heaven cemetery.

The family requests that expressions of sympathy be in the form of contributions to the D.C. Society for Crippled Children.